

VTMS NEWS:
Michael Davies Sends Congratulations

Dear David,

I have just returned from a very encouraging week with Una Voce Czech Republic. The news that you have given me is among the best that I have had for years, corresponding to the decision of Archbishop Pell to invite the FSSP into Melbourne. You must accept the Archbishop's offer unequivocally and impress upon your members the need to give to a sacrificial extent if necessary to make a reality what you have fought for so long. The martyrs of England and Wales gave their lives for the Mass; they would have given all their material possessions to have been given what you have been offered.

In Domino,
Michael.
